

CLERMONT BUSINESS SCHOOL VISITS BELLSTECH

A high-powered delegation from the Clermont Business School, France, visited Bells University of Technology, Ota, on Wednesday, 28th January, 2026. The visitors had their institution’s mandate to discuss and explore mutually beneficial grounds for collaboration between Clermont Business School and Bellstech.

The Vice-Chancellor, Professor Jeremiah O. Ojedian, RE (COREN) FNSE, FNIAE, IION. received the team in his office with other members of Management; the Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Ngozi Arisa, the Bursar, Mr. Sina Adepoju, the University Librarian, Dr. Felicia Yusuf. Also, in attendance were Director, Centre for Advancement Linkages and Partnerships (CALP), Dr. Ogunsola, the Director, Academic Planning, Prof. Sunday Fayomi, the University Legal Officer, Mrs. Sayo and other members of the Advisory Committee on Linkages and Partnerships,

The Vice Chancellor, welcomed the team while the team led by Ms. Esteves Audrey, the CBS International Relations Officer, France, Mr. Mohammed, Coordinator, CBS, Egypt and Mr. Samuel Bello, Coordinator of CBS international students in Cote-de-Voir.

After a brief meeting with the Vice Chancellor, a technical meeting was held at the board room to further discuss the modalities and expectations from the partnership. The meeting was fruitful with well identified mutual interests. Further steps are to be taken on the draft MOU.